

Oguz Baskurt Travel Award

In honor of the support towards junior scientists that was given from Dr. Oguz Baskurt, and also to his achievements, a Travel Award for young or junior investigators that don't have the means to travel to attend the ESCHM conferences will be granted.

Who can apply?

Young or junior investigators who lack funding to attend the meeting.
Only one will be selected by the committee.

Rules of the application

A letter from a tutor, an abstract, an extended abstract and CV.

How to apply

Please send your abstract by 31 March, 2016 to eschm2016@leading.pt.

Amount for the winner

The award will be for 1.500 USD, plus free registration to the 18th Conference of the European Society for Clinical Hemorheology and Microcirculation.
