

Joint Conference of

The European Society for Clinical Hemorheology and Microcirculation
The International Society of Clinical Hemorheology
The International Society of Biorheology

July 2-6, 2018, Cracow, Poland

You are cordially invited to attend the Joint Conference of three societies : ESCHM, ISCH and ISB which will be held on July 2-6, 2018 at the Jagiellonian University in Krakow - one of the oldest higher education institutions in Europe, founded in 1364.

The Conference aims to cover a broad spectrum of topics in bio- and hemo-rheology. It also aims at providing opportunities for intense interaction of young researchers with the established experts in the field.

The site of the Conference, the City of Krakow, is one of the most important historical, cultural and tourist centres of Poland and Central Europe. Krakow, with its alluring attractions mixed in optimal proportions, has it all to attract millions of tourists a year.
