Newsletter

Fall 2017

Letter from the President

Dear ISB Members:

I am writing to invite your participation in planning our next scientific meeting. Following the successful joint meeting of our society in Seoul with the International Society for Clinical Hemorheology, co-chaired by Sehyun Shin (ISCH) and Herb Lipowsky (ISB), there has been a hiatus in activity as plans have developed for the next meeting. Our meeting at Korea University in 2015 demonstrated that Biorheology remains an important field of scientific exploration with many challenges that lie ahead.

Our next meeting will be held jointly with the International Society for Clinical Hemorheology and the European Society for Clinical Hemorheology and Microcirculation in Cracow, Poland, on:

July 2 – 6, 2018.

Our host and local organizer for this meeting will be Dr. Maria Fornal (maria.1.fornal@uj.edu.pl) of the Jagiellonian University Medical College and Polish Society of Hemorheology and Microcirculation (P<sup>T</sup>HiM). See below for details of the meeting and visit the meeting web site at <http://www.hm2018.symposium.pl/>. To make this meeting a success, we will be soliciting proposals for symposia, as indicated in the forms below. Your proposals for symposia will be most welcome by the organizers.

In this newsletter, please find attached a dues notice. We are in need of funds to support travel awards to the Joint meeting and plenary speakers. Hence please consider an additional voluntary contribution to the Society. Also included, are nomination forms for the Poiseuille Award; and Young Investigator Travel Awards funded by the Copley-Oka endowment fund. The Poiseuille Award nomination should be sent in electronic form as pdf files to the chair of the Awards Committee, Dr. Geert D. Schmid-Schönbein, by January 1, 2018. Applications for young investigator travel awards will be solicited with the call for abstracts. We also encourage you to recruit new members of the Society. A blank application for membership has been included with this mailing.

It is also time to elect a new slate of officers for the ISB. Nominations are sought for the offices of President, Secretary General and Treasurer, as well as Vice President and Council member. Please send your suggestions or nominations to me.

I look forward to working with all of you in preparation for our next meeting and seeing you in Cracow in July, 2018.

Best Regards,

Peter J. Butler
President, ISB

Meetings: Past and Future

2015 The last meeting of the ISB was a joint meeting with the ISCH in Seoul, Korea, and was the 15th International Congress of Biorheology and 8th International conference on Clinical Hemorheology. Our host chair of the meeting was Dr. Sheyun Shin of Korea University. The program committee was co-chaired by Dr. Peter Butler (USA) and Dr. Masaaki Sato (Japan) representing the ISB, and Drs. Brian Cooke (Australia) and Tamas Alexy (USA) representing the ISCH. The meeting was well attended by over 200 researchers.

2018 The next meeting of the ISB will be a joint meeting with the European Society for Clinical Hemorheology and Microcirculation (ESCHM) and the International Society for Clinical Hemorheology (ISCH) to be held in Cracow, Poland.

If you would like to offer suggestions for organization of the meeting please contact either of these four people:
